HARALD THE SKULL-SPLITTER
CHIEF OF INDGAR

THORFINN

OLAF SON OF
ERIK THE EAR-MASHER

CHAPTER 1

Harald the Skull-Splitter was a Viking chief. Like all Vikings, he'd been given a tough name when he came of age. Skull-Splitter was the roughest and toughest name his parents could think of. And Harald was one of the roughest and toughest Vikings EVER.

One day, Harald came back from a sea voyage. He kicked open his front door in the usual Viking way.

BLAM!

"I'm hungry! What's for dinner?"

CHAPTER 1

Harald the Skull-Splitter was a Viking chief. Like all Vikings, he'd been given a tough name when he came of age. Skull-Splitter was the roughest and toughest name his parents could think of. And Harald was one of the roughest and toughest Vikings EVER.

One day, Harald came back from a sea voyage. He kicked open his front door in the usual Viking way.

BLAM!

"I'm hungry! What's for dinner?"

Then he let out a cry of horror, for standing in the kitchen was the most terrifying thing he had ever seen. More terrifying than the two-headed sea monster of Kroll. More terrifying than the painted cannibals of Caledonia.

It was his son, Thorfinn.

And he was doing the dishes!
