

Helping your children choose books they will love

Lovereading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

Opening extract from
Santa's Reindeer

Written by
Matilda Tristram & Tom Duxbury

Illustrated by
Nick Sharratt

Published by
Walker Books Ltd

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

Santa and Reindeer were having supper before delivering the presents on Christmas Eve.

"This soup needs a bit more pepper," said Santa.

"But it's making my nose tickle!" said Reindeer.

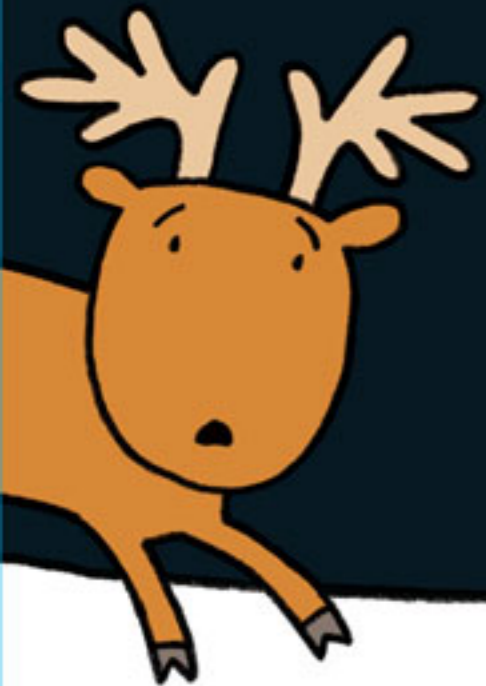

ATCHOOO!

Off flew his nose!

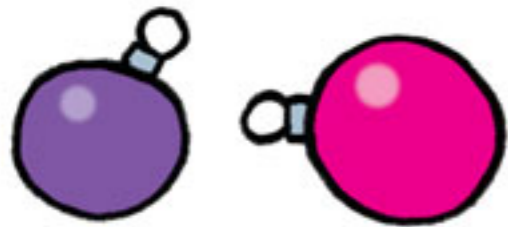

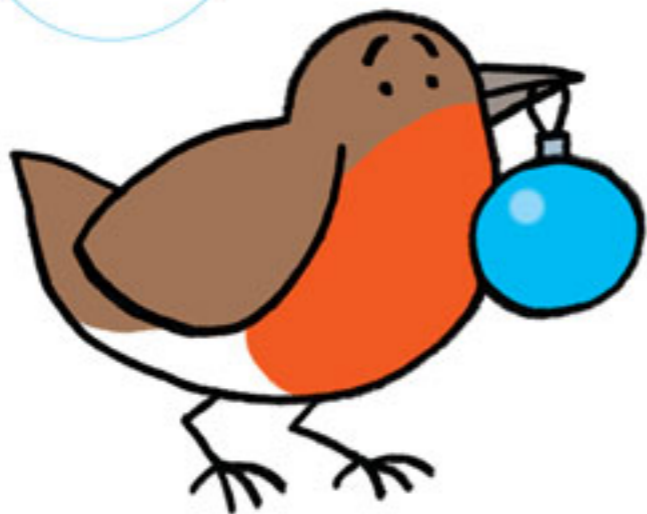

"Oh no! My nose! We can't deliver the presents without my nose!" said Reindeer.

"Don't worry. We'll get it back," said Santa. And away they went after it, into the night.

Robin was decorating her tree.
"It looks lovely," said Santa.
"Yes, but this funny black bauble isn't very Christmassy," said Robin.
"That's not a funny black bauble,
that's my nose!" said Reindeer.

But Robin had already thrown it away.

Seal was practising tricks for the Christmas show.
"Hello Reindeer, hello Santa! Watch me make this ball spin!"

"That's not a ball, that's my nose.
I really need it back!" said Reindeer.
But Seal did a twirl and the nose flew off again.

