Princess Flo was excited! She was off to spend her pocket money at Fluffley's Fine Toys,
her favourite toy shop in town.

At Fluffley's Fine Toys everyone was busy preparing for the royal visit.

But not everything was going according to plan!
"That owl has a scowl," cried Miss Fluffley, the owner.
"Remove it at once!"

Upstairs in the workshop things were even worse.
"This donkey is wonky," cried Miss Fluffley.

"Fix it at once!"

Everything had to be perfect for the princess. Anything that wasn't was thrown on the mistakes table
and sucked into . . .

. . . the UNSTITCHER!

But the day had started early and everyone was tired.
They hadn't even had a tea break!

BIG Mistakes!   BIG Mistakes!

And that was when another mistake happened . . .

Someone put a hippopotamus
on the wrong table,

and thrown into
the wrong box!

where it was given
the wrong fur,

He didn't look quite right.
