The boring
bits

Illustrated by the artistic genius

HarperCollins Children's Books

Mr Bright had told all the children in his class it was Bring-your-pet-to-school Day. Everyone rushed into the playground to meet the animals. There was...

Last to arrive, as usual, was a little girl called Miranda.
She was riding on the back of an enormous, slithery snake.
“Meet Penelope, my pet python!”
announced Miranda.

On seeing the snake the other children screamed,

“Aaarrgh!”

Miranda loved being different. She always stood out at school with her individual take on school uniform, her cartwheels down the corridors and her funny answers in class.

A python is a rather unusual pet but Miranda and Penelope had SO much fun playing together. For the little girl the snake would pretend to be...
