

Miss Hoot

Mole

Frog

Mouse

Owl

Rabbit

For Jensen and Sebastian
LM

First published 2008 by Macmillan Children's Books
an imprint of Pan Macmillan
20 New Wharf Road, London N1 9RR
Associated companies throughout the world
www.panmacmillan.com

ISBN 978-0-2398-1843-4

Text and illustrations copyright © Lydia Monks 2008

The right of Lydia Monks to be identified as the author and illustrator of this work has been asserted by her in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means (electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise), without the prior written permission of the publisher.

133798444

A CIP catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library.

Printed in China

Lydia Monks

Frog Hops Off!

MACMILLAN CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Frog was always very bouncy.
But today he was feeling very bouncy indeed!
He couldn't wait to get to Twit Twoo School.
His teacher, Miss Hoot, had said that today
they were going . . . exploring!

Frog didn't want to hold Daddy's hand. He was off!

When Daddy finally managed to catch up with Frog he said,
“Now listen to what Miss Hoot says today.
No bouncing off on your own.”

“Yes Daddy,” said Frog, who was trying to hold
in a huge hop.

Frog got to school very early.
Eventually the other children arrived.

They were all very excited, and the first thing they explored was each other's lunchboxes.

Frog managed to drop his on the floor. Mole helped him pick it up.

Owl was very proud of his lunch. He had made it all himself.

Rabbit had already eaten most of hers.

Miss Hoot gathered the class around. "Today, children," she said, "we are going underground."

Frog jumped up, knocking over his lunchbox again. It was going to be even better than he'd thought!

