When he wasn't busy munching grass,
Alfonso the alpaca loved nothing more than relaxing with a good story.

But, as he looked at everything
around him,
Alfonso realised
something was wrong.

Very wrong . . .

Bears are EVERYWHERE!

Alpacas are . . . NOWHERE!

Bears, bears, bears – cuddly, friendly, grumpy and hungry – EVERY type of pesky bear! But not a single alpaca.

“This is a disaster!”
said Alfonso. “We
need alpaca stories,
and we need them
NOW. And I’m
just the alpaca for
the job.”

So off he bounced to get started, but . . .

... holding a pen with his feet was awkward.

And Alfonso didn't have much luck with his tail

“I can't do it,”

said Alfonso as he flopped down on to the grass.

... or even his mouth.
