THIS book takes its inspiration from the much-loved song 'Here We Go Round the Mulberry Bush': the words can be sung to the same rhythm and there are animal noises and actions, too. It's a book that invites lots of high-energy enjoyment but it's also a book that can be shared with young children to talk about habitats around the world, encouraging them to develop an awareness of the great diversity of wildlife that our planet supports. The book begins with animals you might find in a garden or on a farm. There are also animals from seashore, ocean, desert, rainforest, savannah, arctic and wetland habitats and the book finishes with a group of nocturnal animals in a night-time setting.

Whoosh
around the

Mulberry
Bush

Here
we go round
the mulberry bush,

with a mulberry whoosh
and a mulberry
swoosh.

Here we go round the mulberry bush on a cold and frosty morning.

This is the way we slime along,
flippety flap and sing a song.

Here we go round the flower bed
on a sweetly smelling morning.
