

Some friends need a little help to find their smile again...

It could be in the rising sun.

It might be in the rain.

Some prefer to be alone.

Some listen.

Others tell...

... the most
adventurous stories
of the times
that went before!

Some friends may not want to talk about them anymore.

Some friends like
to read a book,

and some friends
like a bath.

Some just
want to watch TV,

while others need
to laugh.

Some friends need a great big hug

to help them feel well.
