Vincent found himself on a galleon full of pirates. There was no sign of Trouble, but there was an awful stench. These super smelly buccaneers were only scared of one thing – WASHING!

Which pirate is the biggest stinker?

‘Can you help me find my dog?’ asked Vincent. ‘Maybe we can and maybe we can’t,’ grinned the Pirate Captain, drawing her sword.

Over to you. What should Vincent do?

Join the pirates! They’re sure to help! 10

They’ll never help! Get ready to fight! 16

Vincent found himself deep in the jungle. What amazing creatures!

Which animal would you take into school for Show and Tell?

Vincent was about to ask if anyone had seen Trouble, when an orang-utan swung down.

‘Someone’s stolen our trophy!’ he cried. ‘The competition is RUINED!’

Sounds serious.
Should Vincent offer to help?

Sure, it’s nice to help. 9

Nope, gotta keep looking for Trouble. 20

Vincent found himself transported on to an alien spaceship. These aliens were totally alien! They could transform into ANYTHING. Vincent wasn't even sure how many there were.

Can you count them all?

The aliens only had one word. That word was 'bleerk'.

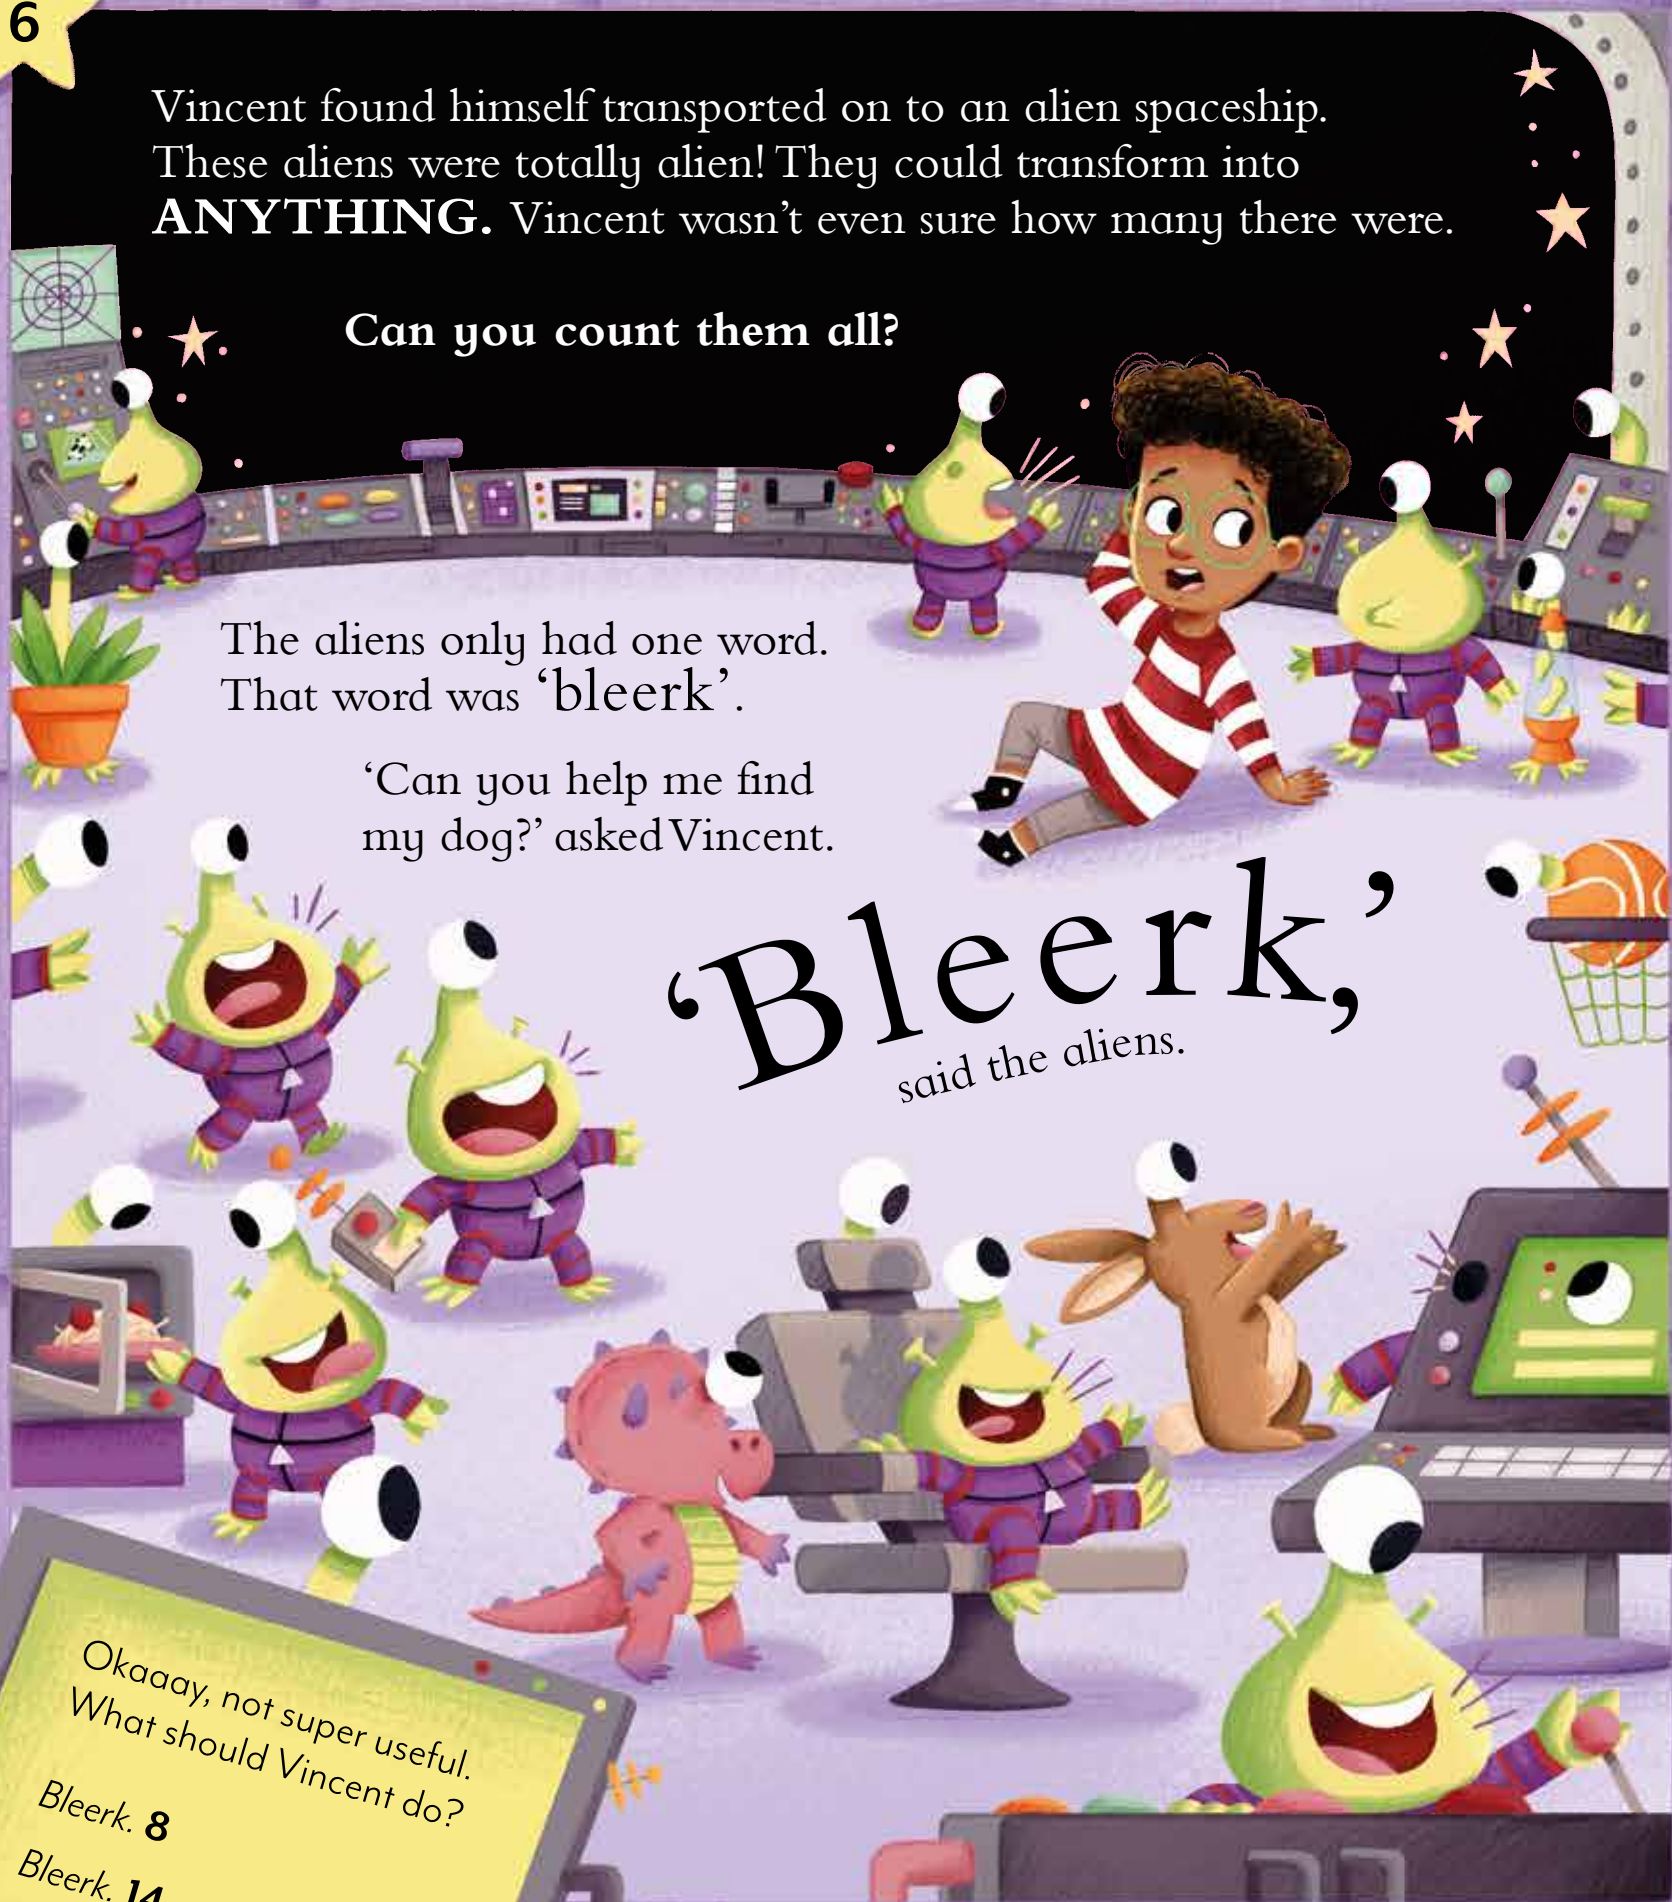

'Can you help me find my dog?' asked Vincent.

'Bleerk,'
said the aliens.

Okaaay, not super useful.
What should Vincent do?

Bleerk. 8

Bleerk. 14

Vincent ran back to the park – and found paw prints leading into some bushes!

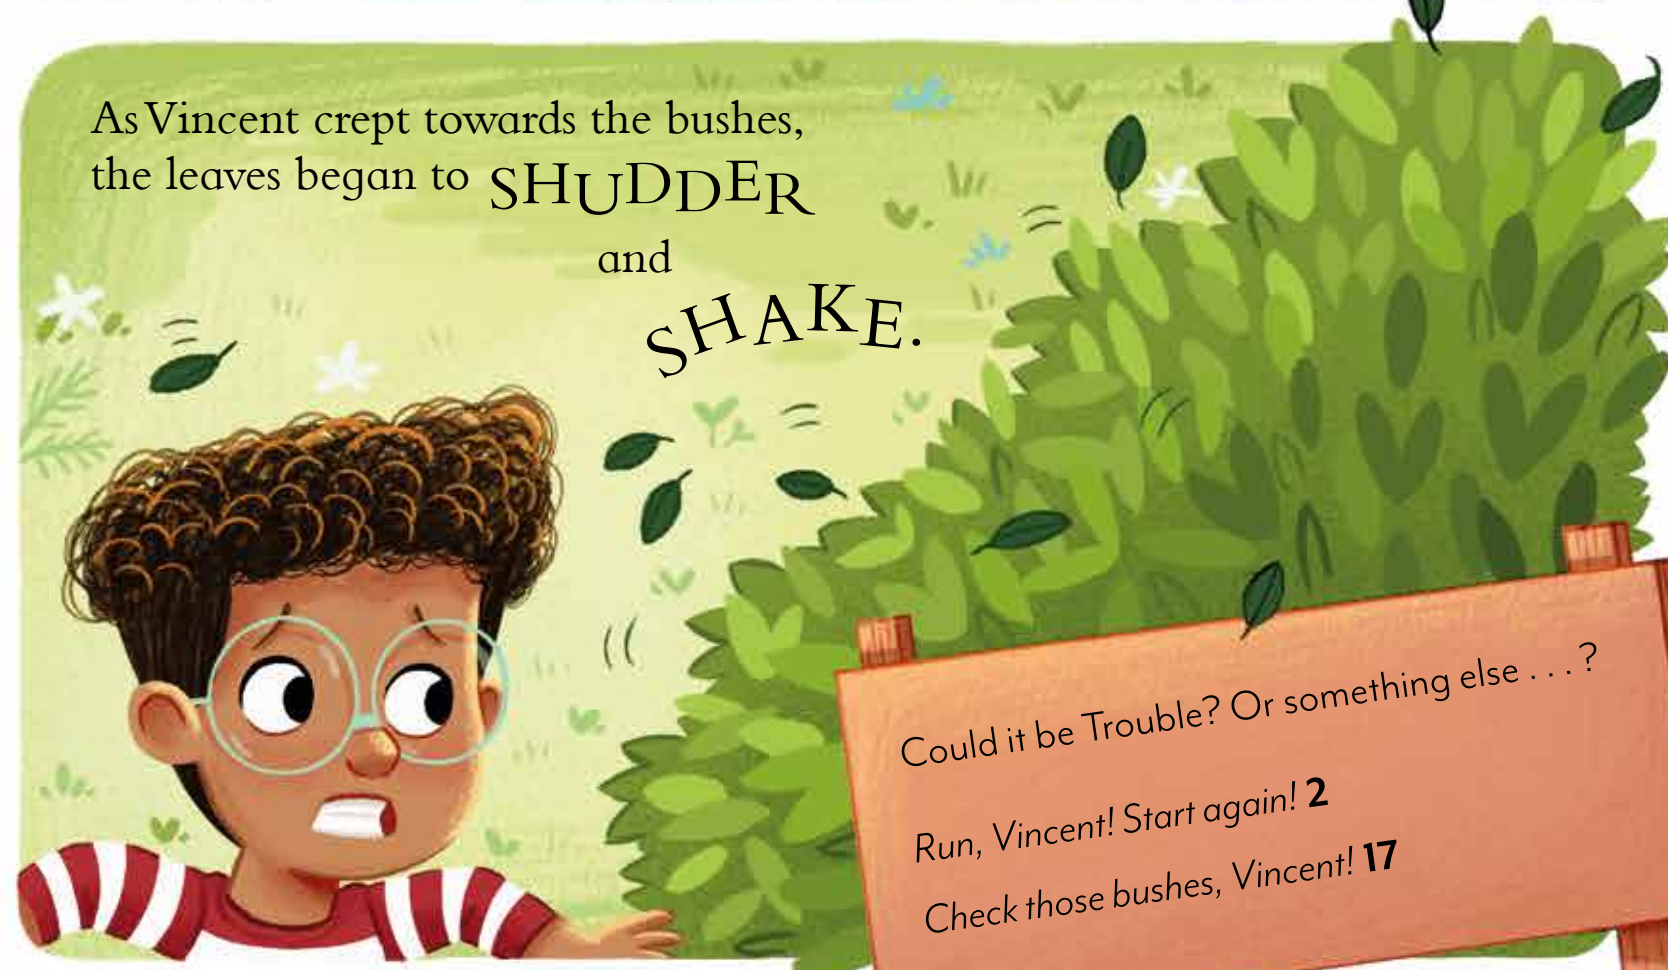

'Are you in there, Trouble?' he called.

No answer.

As Vincent crept towards the bushes, the leaves began to SHUDDER and SHAKE.

Could it be Trouble? Or something else . . . ?

Run, Vincent! Start again! 2
Check those bushes, Vincent! 17
