

Frida is a
ROCK-AND-ROLL MOTH

She plays a purple guitar.

Her boots are pointy.

Her music is . . .

Auntie Edna is her number one fan.
When she watches Frida play
she claps and cheers.

ROCK ON, FRIDA!
YOU SHINE EXACTLY AS YOU ARE!

does not feel

SHINY

She has no one to ROCK with.

She has no one to ROLL with.

Frida even starts to think about giving up her purple guitar forever.

The illustration features a dark green night sky with a large, glowing yellow lightbulb in the upper center. A hand on the left holds a blue string, and a hand on the right wears a gold necklace with a colorful pendant. The background is a textured, golden-yellow surface with scattered white stars.

Now there are rock moths everywhere.
They dance and sing
and

ROCK!

Frida cannot wait
to join in.
