PUFFIN

This is Christmas Tree Mouse.
She always has . . .

. . . a bauble hat (perfect for hiding in Christmas trees),

a snowy-white waistcoat (perfect for keeping warm on winter nights),

a walkie-talkie for calling Santa HQ, (only to be used in case of Catastrophes!), and a clothes peg for . . . you'll see!

She is one of many Christmas Tree Critters.
There might be one in your Christmas tree.

You could look straight at her and never see her.
You could strain your ears all night and never hear her.

She is quiet!
As quiet as a mouse.
A mouse on a mission . . . !

A mission to help Santa on his busiest night of the year.

So, once Santa has squeezed through the letterbox and left the presents under the tree, then eaten up the mince pies and flown from the roof or balcony to his next special stop . . .

Christmas Tree Mouse begins.
