

OH NO, FLO!

But most of all,
Farmer loved
looking after Flo...

and she always gave the BEST tummy rubs.

A colorful illustration of a woman with red hair sneezing into a white tissue. She is wearing a white nightgown and a green and white striped scarf. A black and white dog and an orange tabby cat are sitting on the bed looking at her. A small table with a tissue box and a mug of tea is next to her. The background is purple with a yellow starburst shape containing the word 'ACHOO!' in large black letters.

ACHOO!

OH NO! If Farmer
needed to stay in bed,
who would run the farm?

Luckily, Flo knew just the DOG for the job...

But... what does Farmer
actually DO all day?
(Apart from give tummy rubs, of course.)
