

Helping you choose books for children

Opening extract from

Horse

Written by

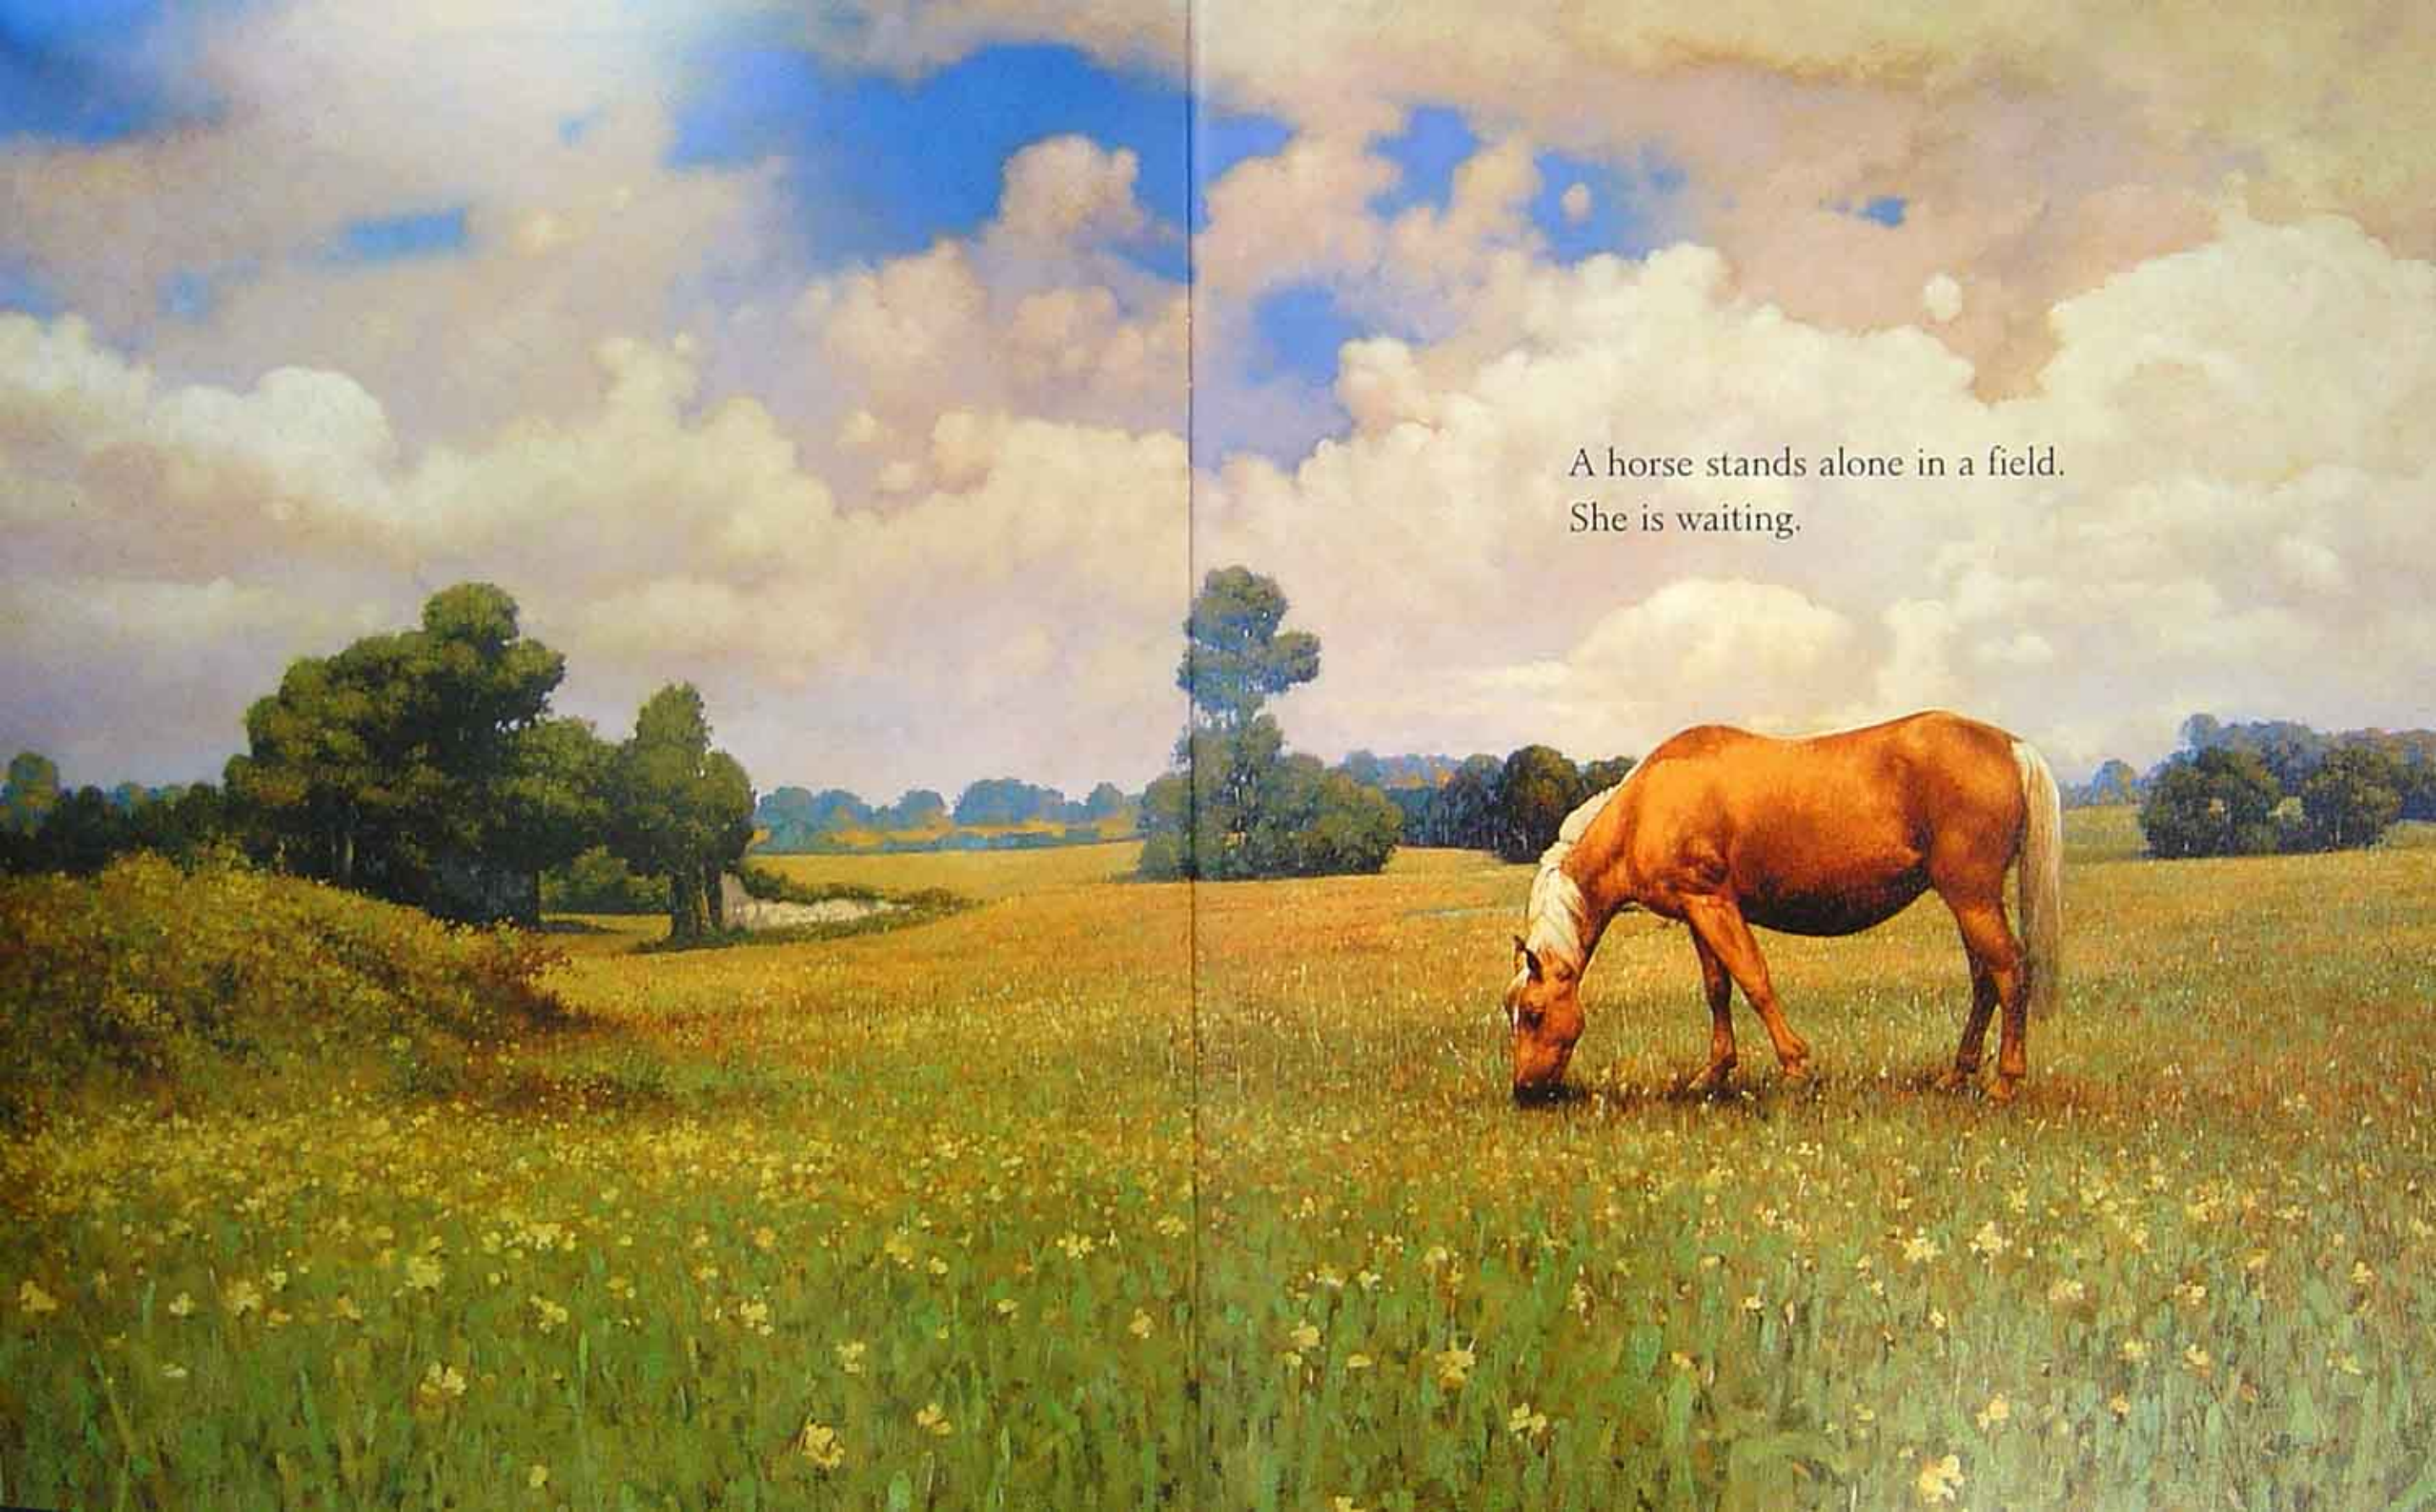

Maclachy Doyle

Published by

Simon & Schuster

All text is copyright of the author and illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

A horse stands alone in a field.
She is waiting.

The children come to visit her,
They love her warm, sweet smell, and the way her breath comes hot and heavy from her soft nose.

