

Helping your children choose books they will love

LoveReading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

opening extract from

It's My World Too: Discover Endangered Animals and Their Habitats

written by

Elena Pasquali

illustrated by

Tina MacNaughton

published by

Lion Hudson Plc

All Text is Copyright © of the Author / Illustrator

please print off and read at your leisure.

“Come away now.” His mother nudged him onwards. “That belongs to people.”
“But what’s that over there?”

© Lion Hudson plc

Little Elephant gazed hungrily at the field of vegetables.
“So much to eat!” he said to his mother, and he lifted his trunk in excitement.

The African elephant eats enormous amounts of plants every day. Where it leaves places bare, new plants grow and provide homes for smaller creatures.

Springbok says,

"It's my world too."

© Lion Hudson plc

A tree in leaf, and more beyond.

"Now my world has space for me to roam," said Little Elephant.

People need to protect their fields and crops – and also leave space for elephants to roam far away.

