“Lola!
Here kitty, kitty, kitty!
Yummy scrummy supper!
Come and get it!”

Lola yawned and stretched on her red velvet cushion with the gold tassels. She hadn't moved from there all day.

Could she be bothered to slink over
to her bowl and see what boring old
food she was being offered?
She supposed she could.

Daintily, she sniffed at her white china bowl with her name painted in big beautiful letters.

Blecccch!

It was that revolting seafood platter in lobster jelly. No way was she eating that old slop again.

And yesterday had been
pheasant in gravy!
Phooey!

Lola was fed up with pheasant.
And tomorrow, I bet it will be
so-called succulent slices of salmon,
she thought, curling her lip.
