Goldilocks AND JUST THE ONE BEAR

Leigh
HODGKINSON

Once upon a time, there was this bear.

One minute, he was lolling about in the wood
all happy-go-lucky . . .

The next minute, he hadn't a crumb-of-a-clue
where he was.

He was one

C O M P L E T E L Y
lost bear.

The bear didn't much like this place.
Too many BRIGHT lights and not enough twigs.
Too much loud HONKING and BEEPING
and not NEARLY enough owl-hooting.

The bear was also a teeny bit scared
and his furry legs had gone slightly WOBBLY.
“Maybe the thing to do,” said the bear looking round, “is to nip into ‘Snooty Towers’ here, and get away from this TERRIBLE racket.”

What the bear needed
was a little sit-down.

A little sit-down
somewhere would

DEFINITELY

see him tickety-boo.

But the 'Snooty Towers' spinnny door made the bear feel dizzy,
and being dizzy with WOBBLY legs was bad news.
