

Helping your children choose books they will love

LoveReading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

An extract from ABC of Nature: A Celebration of Nature Through the Alphabet

Written by Andrea Pinnington & Caz Buckingham

Published by Fine Feather Press Ltd

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

B

b is for butterfly

Which butterfly do you like best?

Small Tortoiseshell

Common Blue

Speckled Wood

Red Admiral

Comma

Marbled White

It's fun to watch the butterflies flying up and down and round. They settle for a moment on a flower or the ground.

It may be hard to see them as they do their dancing flight... but... you might just spot a Tortoiseshell, a Comma or Large White.

Large White

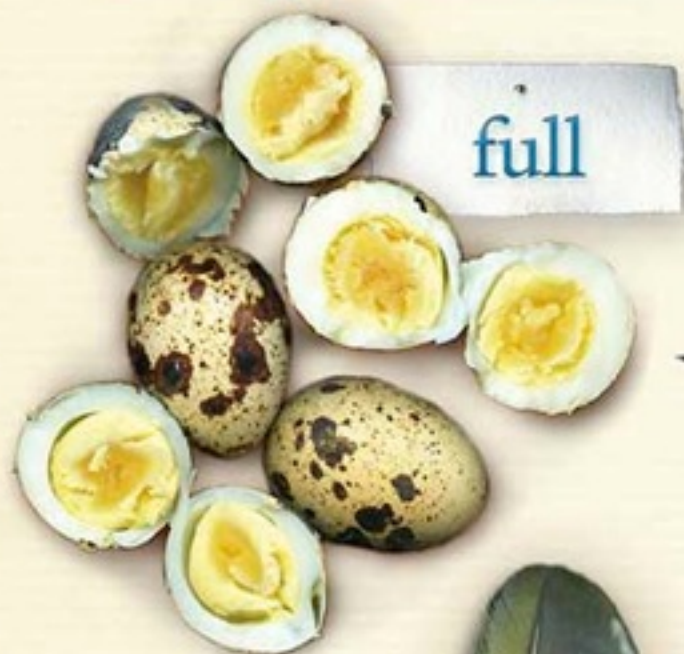

E

e is for empty

Empty is the opposite of full.
Can you match the opposites here?

full

fast

small

light

soft

closed

open

hard

big

heavy

empty

slow

K

k is for

kestrel

Can you spot five differences between these two kestrels?

Did you know that a kestrel is a bird of prey?

