THE 10 BEST GAMES OF ALL TIME

A great game you just finished? Don't get out a board or looking for the right pieces or being back someone's bags of bags to use your family to friends.

This book brings together ten classic games. Some of them like Ludo or Snakes and Ladders, are games that you might know already. Others, like Snuggly or the Board Game of 10, might be brand new to you. But all of them are fun to learn and play!

On every inside page, there's a list of these things:

- A list of the number of pieces or pieces that the game uses (like the number of pieces that are in a game or how many a list of the pieces you need to play)
- How to play the game
- How and when to help you get the most out of each game
- A list of which game board

So the parents, you'll find all the things you need and a list of the things you can do together. Find a board to play with and let the games begin!
