“Thank you,” said Aunt Amelia, “I’m sure these will be very useful.”

We started on the list straight away.

It said . . .

Please tell the children to be careful if you go to the park.

Don't let them go near the edge of the pond...

or get themselves too dirty.

They can have an ice-cream, but just one each.

They already have plenty of toys...

and don't let them pester you for sweets.
